

Robert Edward passes away

Professor Robert Edward, the man responsible for the birth of first test tube baby Louise Brown in 1978 passed away on 10th April, 2013. His technology IVF (in vitro fertilization) has till now given parenthood joy to more than 5 million families. He later won Nobel prize in medicine for having found IVF on 10th April, 2010.